2019 Annual Meeting

July 28–30, 2019 | French Lick, IN
French Lick Springs Hotel

ADVANCE PROGRAM
Dear Members and Guests:

The Midwest Surgical Association 2019 Annual Meeting will kick off Sunday with the New Member and Welcome Reception followed by a new meeting feature, the Alexander J. Walt Historical Lecture given by Michael G. Sarr MD from Mayo Clinic, Rochester. Sunday evening will spotlight Spectacular Problems in Surgery, an MSA favorite.

This year’s abstract submission marked the highest number ever submitted in a non-Mackinac year, and Monday and Tuesday’s Scientific Programs will feature 28 exceptional papers from our members, including the Surgeon in Training paper competition, a prize for the Best New Member presentation, and Featured Posters. These have been carefully selected by the MSA Program Committee led by Dr. C. Max Schmidt from Indiana University School of Medicine.

Be inspired by this year’s Scott Woods Memorial Lecture “The Roles Music and Music Therapy Played in my Recovery” given by Greg Markell, survivor of a ruptured brain aneurysm. Jeffrey B. Matthews MD, University of Chicago Chairman of Surgery will share his highly acclaimed lecture: “Vagal Things and Guitar Strings: The Evolution of Ulcer Surgery and the Electric Blues from Chicago’s South Side” during the William H. Harridge Memorial Lecture. You may pick up a consistent theme in the title of this year’s Presidential Address “Music, Medicine, and Mind.”

Thank you to Dharmesh Patel MD from Evansville Surgical, this year’s Local Arrangements Chair. We have arranged an exciting social program featuring the popular 5K Run on Monday morning, golf, the chance to tour a nationally acclaimed historic car collection, and horseback riding Monday afternoon. Make plans to join us for the Nonie Lowry Dinner Dance on Monday evening, a family event filled with good food, good music, and fun! True to the spirit of the MSA, Tuesday evening will feature the MSA Backyard Games and Reception. Please encourage your surgical colleagues, new surgeons in practice, surgery residents, and medical students to join us at the French Lick Springs Hotel to share in the collegiality and educational benefits of the Midwest Surgical Association.

We look forward to seeing you this summer.

Very best regards,

Nicholas J. Zyromski MD
2018-2019 MSA President
